

Maximizing Productivity and Profits Through Smarter Decisions

In the age of AI those around you will still need to think critically and act intuitively!

Are hesitant decisions and flawed thinking costing you time and money? Are distractions, information overload and digital dependence draining productivity? Then turn your team into DecisionNinjas – people who think fast, act decisively and inspire others to do the same. Join Bob Wendover, author of the award-winning book, Figure It Out for this engaging and practical session. Learn the secrets to improving your firm's decision culture by implementing three simple steps. Discover how to stop the parade in your office that drags down productivity with needless distractions.

"I know when a keynote speaker had the attention of the membership when I hear you quoted time after time during the remainder of the convention."

"Your session received the highest rating of all the sessions at the conference. Your message made a tremendous impact on the attendees."

Bob Wendover is the award-winning author of Overcoming Overwhelm: Recapture Your Time, Energy and Focus. He has spent the past 35 years showing employers how to adapt to the ever-evolving workforce. In this high-energy, interactive session, Bob reveals how top performers avoid the demands and distractions of today's workplace. Attendees have raved about his down-to-earth approach to one of life's biggest challenges. Bring Bob in for one of the most meaningful and results-oriented sessions your team has seen in years.

Call 1-800-227-5510 to check availability for your next event or email bobw@commonsenseenterprises.net